

Privacy Policy

Brief Explanation

This legal documentation provides an explanation of how this application collects, uses, shares, and protects your data. It is intended to cover your interests as well as ours.

Definitions

For the purposes of this Privacy Policy, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

- "Application" refers to Raijin, including all services and features offered through it.
- "User" refers to anyone who accesses or uses the Application.
- "Content" refers to any text, images, videos, audio, software, or other materials provided through the Application.

Privacy Policy

Application by Raijin was created for basic discord moderation services. If you have any privacy-related questions or concerns, please feel free to reach out via galenecole@gmail.com.

We collect various types of personal information, including but not limited to, your name, email address, IP address, and location. Data may be collected through a variety of means as the application expands. Currently, data is collected through user input.

Acceptance of Privacy Policy

By continuing to use this application, you implicitly accept this Privacy Policy. If you do not agree with any part of this Privacy Policy, please discontinue using the application immediately.

Data Use

The data collected is primarily used to operate, maintain, and enhance the application through which it was supplied. This includes functionalities such as user authentication, service provision, personalization, and customer support. We may use the data to understand user behavior and preferences to improve our existing services and develop new features. Data may be analyzed to monitor usage trends, identify performance issues, and ensure the application functions correctly.

If our application integrates or interacts with other applications within our ecosystem, data may be used across these applications to provide a seamless and enhanced user experience. This will only occur if you have given explicit consent for such integration. In cases where the application offers features that involve other applications or services, you may be prompted to allow the use of your data for these specific purposes. You will always have the option to accept or decline such prompts.

We may use your data to communicate with you regarding updates, security alerts, and administrative messages related to the application.

We may use and disclose data as required by law, such as to comply with a subpoena or similar legal process, or when we believe in good faith that disclosure is necessary to protect our rights, your safety, or the safety of others, investigate fraud, or respond to a government request (sorry guys).

Lawful Basis for Processing

We process your personal data based on the following legal grounds:

- Consent: When you have given explicit consent for us to process your data for specific purposes.
- Contract: When processing your data is necessary for the performance of a contract to which you are a party or to take steps at your request before entering into such a contract.
- Legal Obligation: When processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which we are subject.
- Vital Interests: When processing is necessary to protect your vital interests or those of another person.
- Public Interest: When processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest.
- Legitimate Interests: When processing is necessary for the purposes of the legitimate interests pursued by us or by a third party, except where such interests are overridden by your interests or fundamental rights and freedoms.

Data Retention

We retain personal data for as long as necessary to fulfill the purposes outlined in this Privacy Policy, unless a longer retention period is required or permitted by law. Data that is no longer needed will be deleted or anonymized. Data may be stored for as long as required by the application to operate effectively for the user.

Data Sharing

Data collected is not shared with any external third parties under any circumstances. This does not apply to instances where our application integrates with third-party services that you have previously agreed to through their own privacy policies. In such cases, data sharing is governed by the terms of those third-party privacy policies. Additionally, we may disclose your data if required to do so by law or in response to valid requests by public authorities (e.g., a court or government agency). Aside from these integrations and legal obligations, no data is shared with any third parties under any circumstances.

Third-Party Links

Our application may contain links to other websites or services. We are not responsible for the privacy practices of these third parties. We encourage you to read the privacy policies of any linked websites or services to understand their information practices.

Data Security

We take the security of your data seriously and implement appropriate technical and organizational measures to protect it against unauthorized access, loss, or alteration. These measures include encryption, secure servers, and regular security assessments. However, please be aware that no method of transmission over the Internet or method of electronic storage is 100% secure.

Data Breach Notification

In the event of a data breach that may compromise your personal data, we will notify you as soon as possible and in accordance with applicable laws. We will also take all reasonable measures to mitigate the breach and prevent future occurrences.

Your Rights as a User

You have the right to access, correct, or delete your personal data. You can also object to the processing of your data or request data portability. To exercise these rights, please contact us at galenecole@gmail.com. We will respond to your request within a reasonable timeframe.

Marketing Communications

We may use your personal data to send you marketing communications about our products and services. You can opt out of receiving these communications at any time by following the unsubscribe instructions provided in the communications.

User-Generated Content

If you submit content through our application, we may use, display, and distribute your content as described in our https://tosauced.win/media/policies/discord/user_generated_content_policy.pdf (link to the policy). You can request the removal of your content by contacting us at galenecole@gmail.com.

Children's Privacy

This application is not intended for children. We do not knowingly collect personal information from anyone under the age of 18. If we become aware that we have collected personal information from an individual or child under this age, we will take steps to delete such information promptly. If you believe that we might have any information from or about a child under this age, please contact us.

Policy Changes

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time to reflect changes in our practices or for other operational, legal, or regulatory reasons. We will notify you of any significant changes by posting the new Privacy Policy on our website or through the application. Your continued use of the application after such changes have been made constitutes your acceptance of the new Privacy Policy.
